TEACHER HURT WHEN PINNED BETWEEN CARS

Mrs. Mona Schlottzauer, 45, wife of the Rev. H. Earl Schlottzauer, Idaville, and Adams County's itinerant sight teacher, was badly injured Monday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock in an auto accident a half mile south of East Berlin on the Abbottstown Rd.

Mrs. Schlottzauer left the county superintendent's office here to go to the East Berlin schools on a regular assignment to teach children with sight problems, when her car had a flat tire, about a half mile from the school.

She had gone to a home nearby and phoned to an East Berlin garage to ask help in changing the tire and then, anticipating the arrival of the service truck, opened the trunk of the car and began to loosen the spare tire there.

Pinned Between Bumpers
At that moment, according to state police, J. E. Rennell, 75, East Berlin R. 1, driving a light pickup truck, and headed north, came up behind the halted Schlottzauer car. He failed to notice the vehicle until he was close upon it, and then braked, police said.

According to the information received by County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefer, when the Rennell vehicle came to a halt Mrs. Schlottzauer was pinned between the bumpers of her own auto and the other vehicle.

TELL OF CADET TEACHER PLAN TO TRAIN FTA

Gettysburg High School students who are serving as "cadet teachers" are bringing something new into the educational system locally, according to reports at a covered dish supper held by the James Gettys Chapter of the Future Teachers of America Monday evening at the high school cafeteria.

The club, made up of 39 students who are planning on teaching as a career, this year adopted a "cadet teacher" program by which members are "adopted" by an adult teacher either in the elementary or high school classes and assist the adult teachers from time to time in the instruction of their classes.

One result has been a group of third graders who can count to ten and speak simple phrases in French and Spanish.

Miss Rowe Presides
During Monday evening's program the "cadet teachers" and their "master teachers" outlined their experiences in working together in providing instruction.

During this period two of the students revealed they are experimenting in teaching foreign languages in the elementary classes they are serving. Trudy Rowe told of the success she has had in teaching French — one (Continued On Page 3)

Dulles Grows Weaker Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was reported today continuing to grow weaker in his fight against cancer and pneumonia.

The State Department said he was being given pain killers and was generally comfortable.

The medical bulletin was the third in two weeks to report a weakening of Dulles' condition.

Dulles was reported to be conscious but sleeping much of the time because of the pain-killing drugs which are being administered.

Not In Coma
Lincoln White, State Department press officer, denied at a news conference reports that Dulles was in a coma.

Dulles' friends expect he may lose his fight for life within a matter of days. Doctors attending him regard it as impossible to forecast how long he may last now that his cancer is in an advanced stage.

Members of his family have gathered in Washington and are frequent visitors at his bedside. The former secretary of state took a turn for the worst Friday after an attack of pneumonia.

PLAN AUCTION ON FRIDAY FOR PARK FUNDS

To raise funds to continue the development of its 14-acre tract north of Hunterstown as a picnic and recreation park, the Hunters-town Ruritan Club will hold its third annual "country auction" Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the square at Hunterstown.

About two years ago the Ruritan Club bought the tract adjacent to the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church at public sale and has paid off the original purchase price. A well is being drilled on the property now and the proceeds of Friday's auction are to be used to cover that cost.

A club officer said today it is "the club's aim to develop this as a picnic and recreation area for the use of Adams County residents. Plans are also being developed to construct a permanent community building on the site." (Continued On Page 3)

President Won't Attend Summit Meet If Reds Put Squeeze Play On W. Berlin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP) — The United States has warned the Soviet Union that President Eisenhower will refuse to attend a summit conference if Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev sets some new deadline for a Communist squeeze play on West Berlin.

Informants said the American warning was prompted by a suspicion that Khrushchev would try such a move if the Big Four foreign ministers' conference turns out to be what he considers a failure.

U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in plain words at a dinner party a few nights ago what the U. S. reaction would be.

Reds Set Deadline
Khrushchev originally set a May 27 deadline for the Western Allies to end their occupation of West Berlin and said that on that date he would give the East German Communists control of the Allied

THREE PROFS RETIRE AFTER LONG SERVICE

Three Gettysburg College professors will retire in June after teaching careers spanning an aggregate of 96 years. They are Dr. John B. Zinn, Dr. William C. Waltemyer, and William D. Hartshorne Jr.

Gen. Willard S. Paul, college president, said, "We pause to pay tribute to three outstanding teachers who retire this year from our college. Their total years of service to Gettysburg College come to almost 100 years—an enviable record. Innumerable young men and women have benefited not only from the classroom instruction these men gave but also from the fine influence their own personalities exerted."

"We will sorely miss them; we owe them a debt of gratitude we cannot hope to pay. I have learned that this type of service is typical of the dedicated Gettysburg teacher. We hope their retirement years bring only happiness and joy," Gen. Paul said.

Dr. John B. Zinn
Dr. Zinn, Ockershausen professor and chemistry department head, was born in Gettysburg. After attending local schools, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Gettysburg College. BUY BUILDING IN HARRISBURG

The State Turnpike Commission Monday sold its former headquarters building at 11-13 N. Fourth St., Harrisburg, for $76,500.

A deed, filed in Dauphin County Court, listed Orcon Associates, Inc., 535 York St., Gettysburg, as the purchaser. Orville B. Orner is president of the local firm. Others in the firm are S. Blaine Miller, William Musser Jr., Joel Hill and Francis Sanders.

The four-story stone-faced building was originally the site of the Ladies Bazaar, a woman's wear shop. It has a frontage of about 42 feet on N. Fourth St. and extends back 76 feet.

The new owners, according to Ralph W. Boyles Jr., counsel for the purchasers, said that it will be used as an office building. Repairs will be made to meet tenants' needs. Orcon Associates, Inc., will take immediate possession.

Private Sale
Henry E. Harner, general counsel for the commission, represented the agency.

The commission had been trying to sell the structure since it moved to pikehead headquarters at Highspire. At a public auction, Harner said, bidding stopped at about $65,000. When the agency advertised for sealed bids, none was received. The sale to Orcon was negotiated privately after the pike board approved this method of selling the structure.

STUDENTS ARE SPEAKERS FOR ROTARY CLUB

Eight members of Gettysburg High School's graduating class told about student activities at the local school before the Gettysburg Rotary Club Monday evening at Rotary's session in the YWCA.

The eight were youths selected during the year to serve as "Junior Rotarians" and attend meetings of the Rotary Club.

Sidney Weikert, president of the Student Council at the school, was presiding officer for the presentation.

Math, Science Hurt Band
Frank Skidmore presented a farce "explanation" of the credit point system during the course of which he "discovered" that while he had had enough credits to graduate in his Junior year he had only half enough to graduate now.

Stanley Prosser, explaining the operation of the school band, reported that "increased emphasis on mathematics and science is cutting the size of the senior high school band." He said the program of music starts with the use of "song flutes" in the early grades and continues through an elementary band, junior high school band to the senior high school band.

Ted Fair explained training in the commercial department of the school, outlining the various equipment the students are trained to operate.

Joseph Sharrer, past editor of the Maroon and White, told of the publication of that newspaper. Charles Vial told of the business problems of the school newspaper.

James McGlaughlin outlined the work of the students taking the agriculture course at the high school.

Weikert concluded the program by telling the Rotarians: "We have thoroughly enjoyed meeting with you during the last year, and we cannot thank you enough for inviting us to be with you. I think the greatest help it has been to us is to permit us, who are at this time seeking to determine our future careers, to talk to you who have already established your careers and learn the needs and demands of various types of life work."

FIREMEN DRIVE FALLING SHORT

The annual solicitation for funds for the Gettysburg Fire Department is bogging down for two reasons, fewer donations and failure of firemen to assist in the solicitation, a fire department official said today.

Thus far donations in town total only $899.85 and in the rural areas served by the firemen the total receipts are only $521. The combined total is $1,420.85. Last year donations totaled almost $7,000.

An appeal was made today by the committee in charge of the solicitations to all firemen to report at the engine house at 6:30 o'clock to assist in the door-to-door canvass.

COUPLE LICENSED

A marriage license was issued today at the court house to Charles Harlin Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Lowe, Fairfield, and Lorraine Mae Kane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Kane, also of Fairfield.

WASHINGTON — Commercial encroachment on the Gettysburg Battlefield is "a dagger pointing at the heart of the world's most famous battlefield," a Senate committee was told today.

Additional acreage at the battlefield area must be purchased as soon as funds can be made available if land still in private hands is not to be developed further, said Henry M. Scharf, manager of the Hotel Gettysburg.

Testifying side-by-side with Scharf was Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission.

He said federal purchase of another 600 acres will give "great stimulus to private interests to help preserve the battlefield area."

Back By Grant
Maj. Gen. U. S. Grant, III, grandson of the Civil War general and U. S. president, urged that 1 1/4 million dollars be approved for the purchase of both the Gettysburg land and other tracts at Manassas (Bull Run), Va., about $750,000 of this total would go to Gettysburg.

The sum proposed by the National Park Service for purchase of the land was eliminated by the House in the Interior Department appropriation bill.

Proponents of the Civil War Battlefield purchase hope to have the Senate put the money back into the bill.

Byrd In Sympathy
Sen. Robert Byrd (D-W. Va.) presiding at today's session of the Senate appropriation subcommittee hearing, expressed sympathy for the proposal. He said he had a relative in the Confederate Army who was killed in the historic Pickett's Charge at Gettysburg.

Scharf said the proposed funds at Gettysburg are not proposed for the purchase of land already developed. The value of such land will not appreciate so much, he said, and so the land could be purchased later.

The present danger, he noted, is possible sale for housing development of farm land now adjoining and in some cases intruding on sections of battlefield park land.

Scharf presented a brochure of aerial photographs illustrating the areas he said should be purchased to prevent further encroachment. Unless this is done, the brochure said, much of the battlefield area will disappear in a welter of new buildings.

Grant said the threat to the battlefield tract is of relatively recent origin. For many years, both Gettysburg and Manassas battlefield areas remained quietly rural. "But that is no longer the case," he said. "The threat of commercial encroachment are both imminent and real. The immediate areas are in danger of being lost forever."

Grant said that no more appropriate occasion could be found for acquiring the needed land than now when the centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg is approaching. The land, he said, will become more and more expensive to buy as time goes by.

BELGIAN KING ELUDES COPS SEES SIGHTS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Belgium's King Baudouin gave his police escort the slip Monday night and disappeared for three hours.

Motorcycle police and carloads of newsmen were escorting the 28-year-old bachelor monarch from Los Angeles to his Beverly Hills hotel. His car turned down a side street.

The officers and reporters reached the hotel and found they had escorted only themselves there. They waited nervously until Baudouin and his party strode into the lobby early today, laughing.

Where had he been? The King wouldn't say.

Just Like Tourist

But a U.S. State Department employee who had been in Baudouin's limousine said the King had been driven past the homes of film stars—just like another tourist.

"After all," he said, "even a King is entitled to a little fun." Baudouin's disappearing act came as he was leaving a meeting of the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, where he had been the speaker.

"Our memories are not short, nor is our gratitude shallow," he said, telling how American aid had restored factories, roads, bridges and harbors.

Today he tours aviation, space and film industries. He goes to San Francisco next.

LIGHT VOTE UP TO 1 O'CLOCK

Slightly more than 12 per cent of Gettysburg's voters had turned out to cast their ballots up to 1 o'clock this afternoon. The polls close at 9 o'clock tonight.

Four-hundred twenty-three out of a potential 3,285 voters had visited the four polling places by 1 o'clock. That number was only four higher than the 419 who voted up to the comparable hour four years ago, when the town had 200 fewer voters.

Of the 2,060 registered Republicans in the town, 287 had cast votes to 1 o'clock; 61 in First Ward, First Precinct, 63 in First Ward, Second Precinct, 84 in the Second Ward and 79 in the Third Ward.

Of the 1,225 registered Democrats, 136 had voted, 20 in the First Ward, First Precinct, 35 in First Ward, Second Precinct, 48 in the Second Ward and 33 in the Third Ward.

An added feature of the primary today was a sticker campaign for Donald G. Oyler, local attorney, for district attorney on the Republican ticket. Attorney Oyler said he had not started the sticker campaign advocating his candidacy.

than now." Grant, who is chairman of the Civil War Centennial Commission, said.

Preserve Shrine

The committee was also told that the Gettysburg battlefield ranks with Valley Forge and Independence Hall as a national shrine.

For that reason, said Dr. S. K. Stevens, executive director of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, the battlefield should be preserved as close to its entirety as possible.

Stevens urged that funds to purchase additional land for the Gettysburg park site be restored to the Interior Department's appropriations for the year beginning July 1.

The House, before passing the latter bill, removed a $1,250,000 item for the purchase of additional lands at Gettysburg and at Manassas, Va. More than 600 additional acres are involved at Gettysburg.

IKE REVEALS ATOMIC AID TO TWO ALLIES

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower advised Congress formally today of plans to help Britain and France develop atomic weapons and submarines.

The President submitted agreement this country signed with those two nations May 7. The pact will go into effect automatically in 60 days unless vetoed by both the Senate and the House.

The agreement with Britain, the only other Western nation now producing atomic weapons, provides for U.S. assistance in the military application of atomic energy.

Details are not being made public.

Will Sell To France

The United States agrees to sell France a quantity of enriched nuclear fuel for use in development of an atomic-powered submarine. At present that project has not progressed beyond plans for a land-based prototype propulsion plant.

The pact with Britain provides for: Transfer of nonnuclear parts of atomic weapons and atomic weapons systems; provision of special materials for research, development and production of military facilities; and furnishing certain other atomic materials and byproducts.

In a brief message to Congress, Eisenhower noted that under an Anglo-American agreement of last July 3 there was provision for certain exchange of nuclear information between the two countries.

GIVEN YEAR ON FRAUD CHARGE

BOSTON (AP)—John J. Shimkus of Worcester, Mass., was sentenced in U.S. District Court Monday to a year in jail on mail fraud charges. The prosecution said he parlayed a puzzle contest into a large dollar racket.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Arlyne F. Hasset told the court the racket worked this way: Shimkus mailed circulars announcing a contest with $1,800 in prizes and a $3 registration fee. The first contest was so simple everyone had the right answer. Then came another contest to break the ties.

Shimkus then started a contest agency at Putnam, Conn., and sent letters to contestants saying they could buy the correct answers from the agency.

This produced another tie and another contest. In the end, Miss Hasset said, each contestant paid about $50 in fees.

With the last tie-breaking contest went a certificate asking contestants to swear they had received no outside help, on penalty of disqualification.

Early Morning Roam By Boy, 3 Ends At Home

NORTH BELLMORE, N.Y. (AP)—Brian Swanson is only 3, but he's footloose and fancy free.

He awakened Monday before dawn, and put his trousers and sweater on.

He called his dog and, still in bare feet, padded off down the quiet street.

A mile away from the Swanson home, police put an end to the morning roam.

And when the anxious mother called up, they told her they had both boy and pup.

She set out in the car and ended the play, and both came back, on the very same day.

ted as if it might be a veiled hint of a new threat.

Herter Gives Warning

Thereupon Herter told Gromyko that anyone who thought the President of the United States would go to a summit conference under duress or threat of a cut-off date had better forget it.

The President's attendance under such circumstances would be impossible, Herter emphasized.

Ponder Red Bid

As the Big Four talks moved through their second week, the Western leaders were considering a bid by Gromyko to break up their package plan for a German settlement and remove four points from it for discussion.

It was expected that the Western ministers would agree to talk about these points but that they might seek to exact some price from Gromyko in return. And they were reported determined to avoid the impression that they were scrapping the rest of the package program, which Gromyko rejected in his strong speech to the conference Monday.

Suggests Neutral Troops

In a private conference with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, Gromyko echoed a suggestion of Khrushchev that neutral troops might be called in to police a free West Berlin.

A Western official gave this account of that talk:

"You have rejected the Western plan on Berlin," Lloyd said. "Now what are the possibilities for an agreement?"

Gromyko then stated that three possible arrangements could be discussed:

1. Withdrawal of U.S., British and French troops from West Berlin, which would become a free city. This was the demand by Khrushchev last Nov. 27 that touched off the Berlin crisis and led to the Geneva conference.

Troop Assignment

2. Western troops would remain in West Berlin, but would be joined by Soviet troops. This would give the Communists a military toehold there.

3. Neutral troops would be stationed in West Berlin. Gromyko did not say whether he meant U.N. troops.

Since the Soviet Union wants a treaty with divided Germany, U.S. officials see no prospect for serious negotiations.

ST. JOSEPH, MO. HIT BY FLOOD

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—A torrent of water up to 10 feet deep surged through St. Joseph's north side late Monday night after a cloudburst north of the city.

One man drowned. Despite widespread damage, there were no reports of missing persons.

The body of William M. Thomas was found four blocks from where the water swept him from his car.

Property damage was tremendous, but no one would estimate the monetary loss immediately.

Merrill Chilcote, managing editor of the St. Joseph News-Press, who made a tour of the area, said "It's terrific. It's unbelievable how much damage could be inflicted in such a short time. It's a miracle no one else got it."

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Stephen L. Richards, 79, of the first presidency of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Church, died today.

The death came from a heart ailment. He was stricken this morning and died moments after arrival at the Latter-Day Saints Hospital at 7:55 a.m.

Emmitsburg

112 AT K. OF C. EVENT; TOWN SETS CLEAN-UP

Approximately 112 Knights of Columbus members and their guests attended the annual communion breakfast of Brute Council 1060 Sunday in Emmitsburg. The members attended the 8:30 mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church and received communion in a body. Fourth degree knights were dressed in full regalia. Following mass, breakfast was served in St. Joseph's High School cafeteria by members of the sodality.

Toastmaster Lumen F. Norris introduced the guest speaker, Felix Robinson, Oakland, Md.; State Secretary Leo Koeple, Silver Springs, and District Deputy Alton J. Lipps and wife, Frederick. The Rev. James Twomey, chaplain, said the grace before and after the meal and was also celebrant of the mass.

The hi-fi set was awarded to Alton J. Lipps during the breakfast.

Lions Elect

Newly elected officers of the Emmitsburg Lions Club are: Ralph D. Lindsey, president; Ralph F. Irelan, first vice president; William G. Morgan, second vice president; John J. Hollinger, third vice president; J. W. Strickhouser, secretary-treasurer; Joseph Fitzgerald, Lion tamer; Joseph W. Sullivan, tail twister, and Charles Stouter, director.

Beginning June 15 parking meters in Emmitsburg will be in operation during weekdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Meters are now in operation from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily, but as of June 15 the new operation time will become effective.

May 27-29 have been designated as clean-up days for Emmitsburg by Mayor Clarence G. Frailey. In previous years only two days were set but this year local property owners have an extra day to place their trash in containers for collectors to haul away. The town will pay the expense for the removal of all trash on these three days only.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Dedicated New Building: Gettysburg's handsome High School building was dedicated on Thursday evening in the presence of a small audience composed almost entirely of women and High School scholars. Outside of the Board of Directors there were not ten Gettysburg men present.

Mr. E. M. Bender, president of the Board, presided. The program of the evening was opened with a selection by the High School Mandolin and Guitar Club. Dr.
J. A. Clutz offered prayer and the club played a second selection.
Dr. T. C. Billheimer made the first address of the evening. Dr.
Billheimer recited the circumstances leading up to the erection of the new building. He said that three years ago the board found that the schools were overcrowded. Upon investigation they found that four rooms meant to accommodate from 35 to 40 pupils each contained 55 to 60.

It was thought that rooms could be secured by remodeling the Meade building. An architect was secured and he showed that this would not relieve conditions as only two more rooms could be obtained and the High School was already overcrowded.

The next question that confronted the Board of Directors after it was determined that a new building would have to be constructed was the amount to be expended. The former debt allowed an additional debt of only $18,000 to be incurred before the legal borrowing capacity of the borough would be exceeded. To have this capacity increased by submitting the question to a vote of the people would have meant another twelve months' delay. As the result the present building, with only one story in the rear,
was determined upon and built.

Driving Club Held Meeting: The Gettysburg Driving Club met on Thursday evening and elected the following officers for the coming year: president, Ben F. Kindig; vice president, Joseph H. Colli-flower; treasurer, Dr. H. M. Hartman; secretary, Edgar C. Tawney. The race committee selected consisted of E. C. Tawney, Louis Weygandt and Dr. William Biggs.
It was decided to build bleachers and to put up a wire fence along the Springs avenue side of the grounds. Additional fencing will be put up around the track and the track itself will be put in first class condition at once. All of these things will make the grounds more acceptable to both drivers and spectators at the meetings. In addition to these improvements which will be made by the club, a number of members have declared their intention to have stalls erected for their own horses.

Many Want The Bounty Money:
About 200 applications have been presented to the county commissioners for bounty for destruction of foxes, weasels and other noxious animals in Adams county during the last 15 months. No claims have been paid by the county since March 1, 1907, owing to the state having exhausted its funds for the reimbursing of counties for the rewards allowed.

Adams county has a bill for $117, the amount of bounties it paid from January 1 to March 1 of last year, waiting payment by the state.

Raise License Fee: It costs more to get married now.

Applicants for marriage licenses will be sadly surprised to learn that the price has gone up. Couples thinking of applying to the office of the Clerk of Courts Thomas must pay $1 for the licenses instead of 50 cents.

Merchants Organize: The Retail Merchants Association of Gettysburg effected a temporary organization on Tuesday evening in the office of the Gettysburg Water Company by electing E. P.
Miller, president, and M. K. Eckert, secretary. A meeting for permanent organization will be held next Tuesday evening at half past eight o'clock.

Today's Talk

EMERGENCIES

Emergencies spot our lives.
We never know when we have to face them. It is very important for us to know how to meet them, whatever they may be. They are apt to call upon us when least expected. Commenting on this, William James said: "Great emergencies and crises show us how much greater our vital resources are than we had supposed."

When these emergencies do occur they call upon us to keep a level head and take command of the situation, as though we were soldiers especially chosen for the task. Often God alone stands by to back us up and give to us the needed courage to see us through.

In an emergency we make ourselves known. It is the test of a leader. Many a man has leaped into fame because of his handling of an emergency successfully.
This was the case with Presidents
Coolidge and Theodore Roosevelt.
The emergencies came, and each measured up to it.

In nearly every emergency there is someone who takes command. Many become heroes.
Emergencies are about us all throughout life. Common sense and courage solve most of them, especially where there is a desirability to do so.

One's true worth shines out when unusual problems are up for settlement. Some of these emergencies are brought on by ourselves. Then it is that we may need someone far wiser than ourselves to consult. It is encouraging that there are so many books written to give us all a lift. What interesting words they discover for us!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Tossed Smile!"

She'll pick at this and take a bite
Of that and straightway leave

Mother would call the doctor in
To learn what makes her act

But I just look at her and grin
And say: "Let's wait another

She mopes about the house and sighs.
She doesn't sing and doesn't

A dreamy look is in her eyes,
Oh, she is plainly off her feed.
Mother is certain she is ill,
But I'm sure that isn't so.
She needs not powder, dope or pill;
She's merely quarreled with her beau.

BOBBY JONES QUALIFIES FOR U. S. OPEN MEET

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The greatest name in golfing history appeared again on a scoreboard in national competition Monday.

The name: Robert Jones.
The immortal Bobby's son, Robert Tyre Jones III, put the famous name in view again by qualifying in a district preliminary for the U. S. Open championship.

Just 3 years ago, Bobby won the Open at the Winged Foot Country Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y., where this year's Open will be played June 11-13.

Young Jones, a 32-year-old bottling company executive from Pittsfield, Mass., says he's "just another golfer who likes to play weekends."

Won Several Titles Nevertheless, he's won the championship of the Pittsfield Country Club, his home course, several times.

Stocky and blond with more than a suggestion of his father's look and stance, Jones hits a long ball and is steady around the greens.

He qualified Monday with a 149 on the par-72 Schuyler Meadows course outside Albany.

It was the first time he's qualified in Open competition after trying "a couple of times before in the past five years."

To enter the Open, he still must hurdle a sectional qualifier at Springfield, N.J., June 1.

He says he especially wants to make the Open at Winged Foot because of his father's victory there.

PLAY, ERROR AFFECT PRO

Dick Sleichter, the Pennsylvania Open champion and a frequent golfing companion of President Eisenhower, let things get out of hand Monday in a regional qualifying test for the National Open, partly because of a caddy's error.

The Gettysburg Country Club pro admitted his play was very poor over 36-holes at Harrisburg Country Club. He finished with a 157, too high to qualify.

Sleichter was par in the morning to the fourth hole. His drive went into the woods and his caddy erred by picking up the ball. It cost Sleichter a two-stroke penalty and a triple bogey seven.
"It sort of shook me up," confessed the President's golfing partner. "But later I told the young lad it made no difference because I was playing very poorly."

After taking the seven, Sleichter was over par for the next five holes and never did recover.

Henry Williams Jr., Fleetwood, took top honors with a 142. Other qualifiers were: Bob Batdorf, Reading, 147; Don Stough, York,
147; John Wudnoski, Wilkes-Barre, 148.

Two U. S. atomic submarines, the Nautilus and Skate, crossed under the icecap at the North Pole in 1958.

It was like "old times" on the Western Maryland Sunday when a 15-car passenger excursion pulled in from Washington and Baltimore. Some of the 731 passengers are shown leaving the Baltimore and Ohio passenger cars at N. Stratton St. The front of the train was at Carlisle St.; the last car extended almost to Fourth St. (Times Photo)

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Recall that old bit about patience and fortitude?

Brother, they've really got it at Albany.

The Senators last in the Eastern League, had lost 11 straight. You'd figure only the diehards would come to watch them.

So what happens Monday night?
More than 6,000 fans turn out.
And the Senators didn't let them down. They defeated Springfield 5-2 behind the seven-hit pitching of Lev Spencer.

Not only the fans were rewarded but also the players. The Albany management paid extra cash dividends for hits, runs and runs batted in.

Blast Leaders

Lancaster bombarded league-leading Allentown 13-4, Binghamton shut out Williamsport 3-0 and York defeated Reading 12-2.

Williamsport, Binghamton and Springfield are tied for second, two games behind Allentown.

Right-hander Don Bridges (2-2)
became the first Lancaster pitcher to go the distance this year. He allowed Allentown only eight hits.
Bridges was supported by a 15-hit attack, including home runs by Howie Rouse and Jim Woods.

Tony Asaro and Leroy Thomas continued their sensational hitting to boost Binghamton to victory behind the three-hit pitching of Rudy Serrett (2-1). Asaro belted a home run and a single to drive in two runs. Thomas drove in the third run with a double.

Herm Cortes sparked a 12 - hit York attack with a pair of home runs. Jack Krol contributed a homer and John Zeleznock a pair of triples. Jack Hamilton (2-1) picked up the victory.

A Bygone Reminder Exists In Theater

NEW YORK (AP) — Amid the backstage clutter of one small New York theater is the last trace in town of a bygone era — a gaslight control board.

The cumbersome array of pipes and valves enabled one stagehand to dim the houselights and illuminate the dramatic action prior to the advent of electricity.

The theater, used by the Black-friars Guild for its annual season of plays, boasts another old relic. The main curtain, a heavily tasseled golden affair, originally was used at the New York World's Fair of 1939 for a show featuring Gypsy Rose Lee.

SECOND ON HOUSE

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A convicted murderer was recaptured in a Nashville tavern Monday less than six hours after he escaped from the penitentiary.

Sipping a beer as officers walked up, Richard Reilly told Inspector Carney Patterson:

"Sure would like another.
There's a long dry spell ahead."
"Why not?" said Patterson.
Reilly downed a second beer.
"It's on the house," the bartender said.

Bullets Stop Dickinson 6-2 To End Season With 10 Victories, 5 Losses

Bob Hulton's Gettysburg College baseball team wound up another successful season (10-5) by defeating Dickinson 6-2 Monday afternoon at Carlisle in its final game of the season.

Dick Hawkins, who drew his first starting assignment since losing a 2-0 10-inning game to Lafayette on April 22, survived court difficulty to become the winning hurler. He pitched six innings, gave up three singles, fanned eight and walked six. Hawkins had been plagued with arm trouble for a month. Mel Jacobs finished the game and gave up but one hit and fanned four in a good relief performance.

The Bullets started out as though they would make a rout of the game. Jeff Kahler blasted a long homerun to right center. Gerry Long and Ken Fruchter rapped singles, which combined with Larry Liedel's walk to load the bases. Bob McNutt, Dickinson left-hander, bore down to fan the next two batsmen and retired the third on a bouncer to the mound.

Dickinson tied the score with an unearned run in the third. A walk, stolen base, sacrifice and a two-out error allowed the run.

Clinched In Fourth
Gettysburg pushed over four tallies in the fourth. Rifter Smith singled and Hawkins doubled him home. Fred Mueller singled, Hawkins stopping at third. After Binger sent both home with a double. Binger reached third on an error on a pickoff attempt and tallied on Kahler's sacrifice fly.

Singles by Jay Myers and Bob Grainger, sandwiching a walk, gave the Red Devils a run in the fourth. Gettysburg's last run in the seventh came on Connie Yousse's single, stolen base, and a double by Fruchter.

Fruchter had a double and two singles to finish with a .477 batting average on 31 hits in 65 trips to the plate.

Monday's game marked the end of the college careers of the following seniors: Liedel, Bucky Walters, Smith, Long and Hawkins.

Maryland Track Attendance Off

BALTIMORE (AP)—Maryland's fiscal experts will have to take a long, hard look at anticipated revenue from the state's 12 thoroughbred and harness race tracks.

An 8 to 9 per cent drop in attendance at the Laurel and Pimlico spring meetings had sent pari-mutuel play tumbling despite the addition of a ninth race to the daily programs at all tracks this year.

Only at Bowie, which opened the season in February, did attendance and betting hold their own. But there was no 8 per cent increase in the handle as revenue experts predicted when the extra race was added.

An early appraisal indicates the per capita betting this year is higher than in 1958, but a percentage of the fans are being lured elsewhere—or can't make it to the track.

The White Sox, who began their run for the top after slumping to fourth, 4 1/2 games behind Cleveland 10 days ago, now have a half-game edge over the Indians, who have only a 4-5 record for the same span.

Detroit Wins
Last place Detroit walloped Boston 14-2 as right-hander Jim Bunning drove in five runs toward his fourth straight victory. Kansas City and New York were idle.

The White Sox tear began after a string of five defeats.

Wynn, the 39-year-old right-hander, has won three in a row during the spurt and became the first to win six this season in the AL while packing away his 25th career victory. He walked four, struck out four and was working on his third shutout until Reno Bertoia hit a two-run homer in the sixth.

The Sox counted three in the first inning against Chuck Stobbs (1-1), scoring on Jim Landis' sacrifice fly, a double by Del Ennis and the first of two RBI singles by Earl Torgeson. Sherm Lollar, who homered and doubled, drove in two runs along with Torgy and Landis, who cashed another sacrifice fly. Al Smith also homered for the Sox, who had a dozen hits.

Brown Retired
The Indians got all their hits off Brown (1-1). They finally got rid of the 34-year-old right-hander, making his second start, in the eighth, when Loe moved in and retired Rocky Colavito on a fly with two on and two out. Loe hung up his fifth save with the hitless mop-up.

The Orioles got the run they needed in the third when Don Ferrarese (3-2) forced it in with two walks.

Bunning (4-3) scattering seven hits for his fifth consecutive complete game, rapped a three-run homer, a 420-foot triple and two singles in his four-at bats as the Tigers swung for 16 hits against loser Frank Sullivan (1-3) and three relievers. Ten of the hits were for extra bases, with Al Kaline, Charlie Maxwell and Frank Bolling also hitting homers.

Giambra Is Easy Winner Over Jones

Giambra whipped Jones, the New York veteran, decisively. Jones, who once beat Robinson, took only one round on the cards of the judges and referee. Giambra gained a unanimous decision in 10 rounds.

Barney Weinstein, business manager of Dallas sports enterprises which promoted the fight, said he would go to New York Wednesday in an effort to arrange an October title match with Robinson. He plans to put the fight on in the Cotton Bowl.

Goodrich built the first rubber tire factory in Akron, Ohio, in 1870.

Benton Is Upset Victor Over Boyd
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—George Benton proved his right to meet some of the nation's better middleweights by an upset 10-round decision over Bobby Boyd Monday night. Now he wants the television audience to see how good he is. Only 3,452 fans—and no TV cameras—were at the arena to see Benton win unanimously what he had described as the big bout of his career. The unranked Philadelphia was convincing in shelling the 10th-ranked middleweight from Chicago with a head-hunting attack.

Benton, 160 1/2, stunned Boyd in the fifth round and frequently thereafter, until the final bell saved Boyd from going down for the first time.

Boyd weighed 162 1/2.

BRAVES BEAT GIANTS; BUMS BLOW BIG LEAD

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

First place is a kiss of death in the National League, except for the Milwaukee Braves—the only club that hasn't found the lead a ticket to fourth place.

In the first week of play, San Francisco broke on top—then lost five of eight and skidded to fourth. Milwaukee was on top for the next two weeks, gave way momentarily as Los Angeles moved in, then returned while the Dodgers dropped four of five and slipped to fourth.

The Giants made a repeat trip to the top May 2—then dipped to fourth again, losing three of four while the Braves returned to first.

Cincinnati was next—but lost four straight and fell to fourth. Then the Dodgers were back. They won four in a row and had a half-game edge on Milwaukee a week ago. But they haven't won one since while the Braves have set up shop once again, winning eight of nine.

Braves Win Again
Milwaukee made it five straight with a 4-2 victory at San Francisco Monday for a 3 1/2-game bulge, largest of the year in the NL, over the second place Giants. The Dodgers plunged to their fifth consecutive defeat with a 9-7 defeat by Cincinnati. No other NL games were scheduled.

The Dodgers blew a 5-0 lead against the Reds, who tied it with homers by Johnny Temple and Gus Bell in a three-run fifth then beat reliever Clem Labine (1-5) in the eighth on Vada Pinson's two-run double and Frank Robinson's single.

Southpaw Warren Spahn (5-4) gained the 25th victory of his career for the Braves. Milwaukee put it away in a two-run sixth against Sam Jones (3-5) on four consecutive hits with two out. Hank Aaron extended his hit streak to 22 games.

Little Leaguers Prime For Opening Saturday; Rotary, Lions Prospects

(First in a series of articles on the six little league teams of the Gettysburg Little League.)

With the opening of the 1959 Little League season just around the corner, managers and coaches have been grooming their Little League squads for the coming summer. During the past two weeks, six teams in the Gettysburg area have been holding pre-season camp on various diamonds throughout the town.

One of the teams holding the center of attraction is the Rotary Tigers, who for the past two years have captured the league championship. In 1958 the Tigers were the only club in the league's six year history to wind up the season with a perfect record of 18 wins and no losses.

George Bender, a veteran manager for three years, will again be at the reigns of the Rotary squad, assisted by Andy Johnston. Despite the loss of six top notch ball players, Bender says, "I feel that this year's team will prove most interesting. The club is very well rounded and I feel that any ball player can go into any position and do a fine job." The Rotary is a young ball club, but Bender says he thinks that towards the end of the season they will match the .300 hitting of last year's team.

Six New Players
The defending champs will have six new young players to fill in some of the vacated gaps. Kenneth Gebhart is both a good fielder and hitter. He will be used at first base, alternating with veteran Daniel Sanders. Jack Hartman is a nine-year-old with plenty of potential. Hartman will be trying to break into the second base position. Robert "Bo" Davies is one of the most promising of the younger men. Davies plays any infield position well, has a good arm and a sharp eye at the plate. There is the possibility he could break into the starting lineup.

Andrew Teeter, Rance Smith and Gerald Wisotzky will give the added strength needed in the outfield. Teeter is an excellent fly chaser while Smith and Wisotzky are fine hitters. Bender said, "So far each one of these new players has played up to my expectations."

The bulk of the Rotary's power will again have to rely on the leadership of the nine veterans. Kenneth Kitzmiller and Jeffrey Walker will be called upon to fill in the gap vacated by the league's leading slugger last year, Tommy Collins. Both will alternate behind the plate. Daniel Sanders and Bill James, two older boys on the team will hold down first base and shortstop, respectively. Johnny Flynn and Philip Wisotzky, both sophomores, will be asked to cover second and third base.

Richard Smith, the most improved ball player on the team.

Seek First Title
A team which has not won a title in the league's history, but has finished runner-up more than any other squad is the Lions, managed by another veteran, Fred Baker. The Lions have always come up with top ball clubs but seem to lack that last week punch to pull the championship out of the fire. This, plus the fact that the Lions are packed with long ball hitters, good defensive men and an excellent pitching staff, makes them the top contender for the season's honors.

The Lions will have two of last year's 300 hitters returning, plus five of the league's leading defensivemen and three top notch pitchers. They will also have a host of rookies who are capable of handling their positions.

HURLS BOY TO GROUND; DIES

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — A college professor who threw a 6-year-old boy to his ground in a fit of rage has been charged with first degree manslaughter.

The charge was placed Monday after the boy, Michael Sorce, died at a hospital.

Charles J. Goebel, 28, assistant professor of physics at the University of Rochester, told police he became enraged when he saw the youngster pushing and teasing his son, George, 3, last Saturday.

Goebel said he raised the Sorce boy over his head and dashed him to the ground. A stick the boy was

MRS. TRUMAN OPERATED ON

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Harry S. Truman, 74, rallied today from effects of surgery for removal of a breast tumor.

A Research Hospital spokesman reported her condition was satisfactory. The two-hour and 45-minute operation was performed Monday morning.

Tests were being made to determine whether the tumor was malignant. Results of the biopsy probably will not be known for two or three days.

"The stick in the boy's hand was the unforeseen circumstance," Goebel said. "I didn't know it was there."

"I know this thing makes me seem like a monster, but it was just an unhappy accident," he said. "There can be no doubt about how responsible I am for this and I'm sorry for what happened."

Goebel is free on $5,000 bail.

Dulles Condition Remains Unchanged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department reports no change in the condition of John Foster Dulles, seriously ill with cancer.

The former secretary of state took a turn for the worse Friday after an attack of pneumonia. There has been no change since then, the department said Monday.

JIM BUNNING HAS BIG DAY

BOSTON (AP) — It's almost frightening to think what might happen if Jim Bunning, a slim right-handed pitcher for Detroit, played in Fenway Park every day.

On July 20, 1958, for example, he threw a no-hitter against Boston at Fenway. His lifetime record against the Red Sox is 10-5.

But it's doubtful that he ever turned in a better day at Fenway than he did Monday.

Bunning had a 4-for-4 hitting performance, including a home run and a triple, drove in five runs and spaced seven hits in heading a 14 - 2 assault on the down-trodden Red Sox.

"It's the best day I ever had," he beamed later. "I once went 3-for-3, but never 4-for-4."

Like many pitchers Bunning treasures his batting average almost as much as his won-lost record, which now stands at 4-3 for the year. Monday's performance hiked his batting mark from .118 to .286.

TOO MUCH SELF HELP

Says Business May Soon Coax Old Timers To Stay

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The problem of letting go is very hard. It is hardest, of course, on the individual who reaches a corporate retirement age and still wants to keep on working, usually for the same corporation.

The main loyalty of his life outside his family has been tied to his job. He often feels he has been able to adjust better to the changing demands of his job than to those at home. Sometimes, as he is needed less at home when the children are on their own, he feels the need to be bigger at his office.

Mutual Has Plan
Then, usually at 65, the office doesn't need him any more. What is done to cushion a faithful employee against the stunning fact that he is no longer a corporate necessity?

Few corporations today do more than give him a corporate farewell. The trend, however, is in the other way. One example is a preretirement program established five years ago by Mutual of New York, one of America's largest insurance companies. They set up a course among their employees on how to stop work, how to let go.

Taught To Retire
The idea was put into effect by Vice President George Wilgus, personnel executive. He felt that although a survey showed two thirds of major U.S. companies do something to help employees on the edge of retirement, most of them don't cushion the blow enough.

His solution? A year before retirement an employee is taught how to retire. He can take a day a week off from his job. He can attend on company time six to seven monthly classes on how to face up to the problems of retirement.

Need Steering
The classes include discussion on where to live, how to handle financial responsibilities, health problems, the development of hobbies, the prospect of taking other jobs.

"These people can and want to be useful to themselves and to society," said Wilgus. "All they need is a little steering before they leave their jobs."

"The human cry now is: it is terrible to retire people. We try to show them what they can do to be happy."

What are the results?
Aren't Willing At 65
"The main benefit is that they think in advance on a systematic basis about the problems of retirement," said Wilgus.

Wilgus has to face, of course, the fact that growing numbers of healthy elders aren't willing to quit voluntarily at 65.

Earlier this month Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell addressed the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

20 Millions Of Them

M'ELROY WILL REMAIN; GATES IS NEW DEPUTY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Neil H. McElroy said today he will stay on indefinitely as secretary of defense.

McElroy made the announcement to newsmen at the White House with his new deputy, Thomas S. Gates Jr. standing at his side.

They had just conferred with President Eisenhower.

"I have suspended my plans for departure," McElroy said. "I don't know when I will be leaving, if at all."

Asked whether that means he intends to stay in the Cabinet indefinitely, McElroy replied that was the best way to put it.

Gates Succeeds Quarles
Eisenhower Monday picked Gates, who is retiring as secretary of the Navy at the end of the month, to succeed the late Donald A. Quarles as deputy secretary of defense.

There had been speculation that Eisenhower had persuaded Gates to stay on at the Pentagon by telling him he is in line to take over behind McElroy. He had been planning to step out June 1 as secretary of the Navy.

Prior to Quarles' death McElroy had said several times that he wanted to leave his Cabinet post by the end of the year to return to private business.

Even in his statement today the defense chief did not rule out the possibility of his resigning before the end of Eisenhower's tenure in office.

Speculates On Reactions Of Russians To Typical Yanks

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor
When a "typical" Soviet family meets a "typical" American family, what's going to happen?

Nobody will know for sure until July 25, when the American National Exhibition opens in Moscow, complete with three "typical" American families, all wearing "typical" American clothes and living in a "typical" American home. But here's my guess:

When Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ivanovich and all the little Ivanoviches take a look at Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Davis, of Short Hills, N. J., and their three children, Jeff, Jane and Chuck, they may not believe it. They may not accept the fact that average American families live in a modern ranch house with television and push-button appliances. They may not believe that the ordinary American family is as handsome and well-dressed as this one. They may say it's all capitalist propaganda.

Working Family, Too
The Davises are one of the three "typical" families chosen from hundreds of applicants to represent their country at the Moscow exhibition. Pop is a good-looking, clean-cut advertising salesman, mom is a pretty, efficient housewife, active in church, school and community affairs. And the three young Davises, ranging in age from 10 to 13, are all-American kids—healthy, happy, interested in everything from baseball to dancing and thrilled at the chance to see how the Soviets live.

The "typical working family" at our exhibit will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hochman, of Brooklyn, and their three children—Stephanie, 13, Ann, 11, and Seth 7. Hochman is a presser for a dress manufacturer and an officer of Local 60, ILGWU.

Working Mother
His wife is interested in sewing, gardening and the PTA. Stephanie likes rock 'n' roll and is a high school cheer leader. Ann is a Girl Scout and Seth is just a regular boy.

Then there's the family of a working mother, Mrs. Michele

Conlon Burke, a professional singer and dancer, who lies in Teaneck, N.J., and has twin 4-year-old daughters, Patricia and Stephanie.

he has suspended plans to leave. Gates had been planning to return to his investment banking business in Philadelphia.

As for his change of plans, Gates remarked with a smile:

"I couldn't think of any reason not to do it, except that I didn't want to, and that wasn't good enough."

McElroy and Gates conferred with Eisenhower as McElroy ready to leave later today or Wednesday to attend the Geneva foreign ministers conference.

McElroy said several times that he wanted to leave his Cabinet post by the end of the year to return to private business.

Even in his statement today the defense chief did not rule out the possibility of his resigning before the end of Eisenhower's tenure in office.

DIESEL - POWERED TAXI CABS COME TO THE STATES

Last year when I visited the World's Fair at Brussels I was surprised to find the city full of U.S.-built Chevrolests, but a strange noisy sound indicated something under the hood was not exactly according to Hoyle. When talking with the driver, he told me that there were nearly 400 Chevrolests powered by the British-built Perkins Diesel Engine in Brussels. In addition, there were also many Mercedes-Benz diesel-powered taxis in Brussels.

Now the "diesel-engine-for-taxi" craze has spread to such cities as Detroit, New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Boston, Atlanta, Cleveland and Trenton, N. J. Some U.S. car makers are not enthusiastic over the diesel-powered taxi idea. However, D. N. Viger of the American Diesel Corporation feels certain that a new era in the American taxi industry is at hand and that eventually a high percentage of U.S. taxis will be diesel-powered. Mr. Viger's program has already resulted in equipping a number of Plymouth taxicabs with Perkins diesel engines. He estimates that more than a hundred diesel-powered cabs will be in use in this country by the end of the year and that several thousand will be operating by 1961.

THE ADVANTAGE OF THE diesel engine, of course, is that fuel costs are much lower and that more miles per gallon can be secured. He also states that maintenance costs can be cut in half and that the diesel power plant is twice as durable. One disadvantage is the engine noise, which the layman might take for loose connecting rod bearings.

The Perkins engine designed for taxicab use is known as the P4C. It is a 4-stroke, 4-cylinder engine with a compression ratio of 16.5:1 — which, of course, is extremely high and only possible to use in a diesel engine. The maximum rpm is extremely low, being only 3,000, and by British standards the horsepower is only 57. Top speed is much lower, which appeals to taxicab owners, as the maximum speed is 70 mph. This could well eliminate the use of a governor, with which many taxis are equipped.

The Antwerp Taxi Company on Antwerp, Belgium, now operates

152 Plymouth cars powered by the Perkins engine. Mr. Viger claims that they have traveled 12 million miles and as yet no engine head has been removed. With New York cabs traveling approximately 100,000 miles per year and Detroit cabs 50,000 miles per year, it may well be that the savings through use of diesel engines will be so high that Mr. Viger's predictions may prove to be correct.

SINGLE UNIT CARS ARE COMING — No question about it, most new model cars of the future will have unit construction. Unit construction indicates the manufacture of the body and frame under welded design as a single unit. This construction does provide more strength and tends to eliminate squeaks and rattles, as against the two unit construction whereby the body is bolted to the chassis.

As early as 1935 the Lincoln Zephyr was a single unit car, and others following were Nash in 1941, Hudson in 1940, Willys in 1951, and Thunderbird and Lincoln in 1957. The first Ramblers were manufactured in 1950. They started with single unit design and have continued this type of construction ever since. Rambler has featured single unit construction in their advertising throughout the years. It is estimated that there are at present more single unit construction cars of U.S. manufacture in operation in the United States than imported makes.

HUNT AVENUE SEES RAMBLER AS FLEET CAR

The purchase of three Rambler taxicabs by Blue and Gray Cabs is indicative of the trend toward the smaller car being evidenced among fleet owners, Allen Weikert, secretary-treasurer of Hunt Ave., Inc., said today. He also reported that his firm has sold two other Ramblers to a fleet owner. The trend is being noticed elsewhere, he said, as reflected in reports coming from manufacturers.

Hunt Ave. has had the dealership in this community since 1954 when it took on the Nash line. The maker has since adopted the name, Rambler, and has placed emphasis on the smaller car.

The small car emphasis has been a good approach for American Motors who have captured an increasing share of the American market, from 1.6 per cent to 6.2 per cent in the past two years. Hunt Ave. has enjoyed a similar increase, Weikert said.

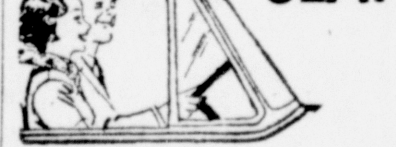

Nationally, Rambler has shown a sales gain of more than 150 per cent from April, 1958, to April, 1959. In the latter month, sales were 39,602 units.

Unit Construction Of course, individual sales make up much of the firm's volume. The Three new Rambler taxicabs which Blue and Gray Cabs has purchased from Hunt Avenue, Inc., are pictured here with Mr. and Mrs. William Waddell, operators of the taxi business, and at right, Fred Spalding, of Hunt Avenue. THE DRIVER'S SEAT

Teen-agers account for 7.2 per cent of the total driving population, but are involved in nearly 12 per cent of all accidents and 10 per cent of all highway fatalities, according to the National Safety Council.

The "accident index" — ratio of percentage of all accidents to percentage of all drivers — is substantially higher for teen-agers than for any other age group. And when schools let out late this spring, teen-agers will be doing even more driving than during school terms. Much of their driving will be done at night, when it is most dangerous to drive.

Since about 56 per cent of all U. S. high schools now are offering some form of driver education to roughly 65 per cent of potentially eligible students, why do teen-age auto accidents continue to run high?

Meet Minimum Standards For one thing, only one-third of the high schools that offer driver education provide courses that meet minimum national standards, and students taking such accredited training make up less than one-quarter of all teen-agers eligible for driver education.

appeal to the fleet owners should appeal to individuals too, Weikert said. One feature of the Rambler which he emphasized is the unit construction of body and frame. These are not separate parts in the Rambler. This, it is expected, will mean less maintenance cost, especially as the cars reach the 50,000 mile mark.

Principals in the Hunt Ave. business, besides Weikert, are Herb Wolfe, president, and Fred Spalding, vice president. All are active in the business.

The firm also has the dealership of the Metropolitan, a small-size import.

In addition to the sales of new and used cars, the firm has a complete service department. It is also an approved Pennsylvania state inspection station.

THE DRIVER'S SEAT

For another thing, though teen-agers do much of their driving and have most of their accidents at night, only 25 high schools in the entire U. S. offer specialized, on-the-road training in night driving. This is far from adequate education when measured alongside the National Safety Council's repeated warning that darkness on the highway is the biggest accident and fatality cause of all.

Three times as many drivers are killed at night as during the day for every mile driven. Though traffic engineers and safety officials each year are improving night highway visibility by marking hazards, traffic signs and even vehicles so they reflect clearly in headlights, accident trends are determined ultimately by the ability of the man or the youngster in the driver's seat to skillfully use such safety aids.

Substantial Research Substantial research in this field has developed knowledge of the special techniques of using the eyes, headlights and the head to survive at night. Improved safety records that have resulted from the many night driving training courses required by truck fleet operators attest to the fact people can, and need to be, taught how to drive in darkness.

High school driver education already has paid off for parents in terms of sons' and daughters' lives saved and insurance premiums reduced as much as 10 per cent. It is apparent that training standards need to be raised further to increase these savings. Efforts to expand driver education

Map Reading Can Tell You Where To Go

By MARTHA JOHNSON Safety Consultant

The navigator for the family car probably has the same trouble I used to have. How to read complicated road maps?

Map reading isn't difficult. Those squiggly lines, abstract little symbols and the numbers in circles, square, boxes and shields mean something and make reading a map fun.

The map "legend" will explain the various symbols. United States highways are indicated by shields with the highway numbers in them, state highways by circled numbers and county roads by boxes with route numbers in them.

The more important the road the thicker the line on the map.

Different kinds of lines indicate the type of road.

Here's a special helpful trick I find useful. I turn the map so the highway I am traveling is tion to equip youngsters to meet more fully the very real dangers of the highway — in sun and shadow — should be supported in every community.

World Briefs

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israel released a Lebanese airliner Monday night a few hours after forcing it down on a flight carrying 27 members of the U.N. Middle East police force on vacation.

The C47 was released after the three Lebanese crewmen were questioned.

Israeli fighters intercepted the plane over the Mediterranean while it was carrying 15 Yugoslav and 12 Indian soldiers from the Sinai desert for a week's leave in the Lebanon mountains.

CANNES, France (AP)—The Elizabeth Taylor-Eddie Fisher honeymoon yacht sailed lazily into Cannes early this morning with the newlyweds out of sight.

But the weather has turned gloomy on the French Riviera, and crewmen of the rented yacht Olmco said they would sail later today for Portofino, Italy.

The bride will miss a reunion with her three children in Nice. The children — by former husbands Michael Wilding and Mike Todd — will pass through the airport there Thursday enroute to Italy. They may be reunited with mama there.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A discarded practice shell exploded on a firing range in central Formosa Monday, killing four boys collecting scrap metal in violation of an Army ban.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek, 72, is reported to have left the door open for a third six-year term when his present one expires next May. Nationalist China's leader was said to have told his Kuomintang party that he had no desire to make the Communists happy by quitting the presidency.

DAR HEAD—Mrs. Ashmead White of Lubec, Me., was elected the president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution at convention in Washington, D.C.

SAYS PEOPLE "FIB" ABOUT THEIR HEIGHT

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—The Oddity Almanac:

What do people lie about most—their age, their weight or their height. My opinion is, based on my experience as a reporter, that people actually lie most about their height. The majority would rather not discuss their real age or weight.

Is this true about you?

Most people have heard about a lynx but they have never seen one. According to "Outdoor California" the average lynx weighs between 12 and 25 pounds.

Dad's Favorite Song
What was your father's favorite song? "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen," sung so sweetly and so clearly and so memorably by that voice across the waters, Ireland's tenor—John McCormack, played on the old one-sided record, had the power to stir my father to tears. He liked to hear it all alone in a room without other noise, a problem in a crowded house.

What was your mother's favorite song? I never knew. It is my opinion that mothers hum an individual and nameless tune of their own, and make it up and change it as their life goes along. It is usually a croon of acceptance of life.

Two-Door Craft
There is now available for more than $50,000 a 66-foot, 32-wheel vehicle that can carry up to 300 tons and requires a driver force and aft.

The drivers are connected by phone. It is a commercial vehicle, basically, but it has family possibilities. A back-seat-driving wife, for example, might have to dial her husband to predict a corner. And if he saw a curve ahead and forgot to dial her—well, steer to-day or gone tomorrow!

Almanac editorial: If you must make do-it-yourself space flights, do them in your own back yard. Don't annoy your neighbors. Quiet, please. The peace you disturb may be your own.

FIND CAUSE OF MISHAP ON EL

CHICAGO (AP)—The failure of a veteran motorman to apply his brakes soon enough was the major cause of the crash of two crowded elevated trains during the rush-hour Monday morning, says a Chicago Transit Authority spokesman.

About 125 persons were taken to hospitals after one jammed train plowed into the rear of another stalled because of a tie-up farther down the line. About 900 persons were passengers in the two Loop-bound six-car trains.

Two were injured seriously and 19 were hospitalized overnight.

Harold Pollard, a spokesman for the CTA, said a preliminary investigation showed Motorman Dominic Paris, 46, "apparently did not apply his brakes soon enough."

Paris declined, on the advice of attorneys, to comment on Pollard's statement. He suffered an ankle injury in the wreck.

WALLY COX IS HAVING LOOK AT PRODUCING

NEW YORK (AP)—Wally Cox, who since the demise of Mr. Peepers has been feeling increasingly frustrated as an actor, is currently a member of the production staff filming an hour-long television show.

"I'm actually a very small member of the staff," says Cox, "and the producers, Bob Graff and John Herman, have been kind enough to let me sit in on budget sessions and learn how the production side works. We're doing Archibald MacLeish's 'The Secret of Freedom,' which will be part of a series of two discussing the way an individual functions in a democracy."

"Of course, there's no salary attached to the job—I'm under contract with NBC. But this is something I've wanted to get into for a long time. I sort of feel helpless as a mere actor—incapable of influencing the way the product itself turns out. It's easy enough to say that I know what to do if I were producing, but I wouldn't know. So I'm trying to find out."

Cox—who has grown an executive-type mustache to go with his behind-the-camera activities—has attended meetings, observed the producers themselves at work and has been entrusted to carry out some of the chores involved in filming a show on location. The producers chose Mount Holly, N. J., for shooting, and Cox's job was to line up cooperation by the two fathers, residents and local merchants.

Cox is not, at the moment at any rate, prepared to drop his actor-entertainer status. For one thing, he's planning to do a Broadway show in the fall—"Moon Birds," a comedy. But he is convinced that where he is concerned, it is comedy or nothing.
